

Dr. Harry Boosalis to speak in Inverness

Dr. Harry (Haralambos) Boosalis, Chairman of the Department of Theology at St. Tikhon's Theological Seminary, South Canaan, PA, will be speaking on

In the Summer of 2009, Dr. Boosalis participated in a teaching mission to Tanzania in East Africa, conducted by the Orthodox Christian Mission Center (OCMC).

“Ancient Spirituality of the Christian East”

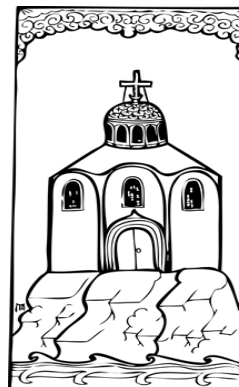

Dr. Boosalis is noted for his sense of humor and engaging personality. In addition to his post at St. Tikhon's, he has spent years leading retreats to the ancient monasteries of Mt. Athos in Greece. Dr. Boosalis received a B.A. in Philosophy and Classics from the University of Minnesota, and his Master of Divinity degree from Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology. He went on to pursue his doctoral degree under the direction of Prof. Georgios Mantzaridis, at the University of Thessaloniki in Greece.

Dr. Boosalis is the author of three books: “The Knowledge of God”, “Orthodox Spiritual Life According to St. Silouan of Mount Athos”, and “The Joy of the Holy”. He has edited and directed the publication of other theological books for St. Tikhon's Seminary Press, and is presently working on a forthcoming publication titled “Orthodox Theology: An Introduction”, which will be used as a textbook in his first year course in Theology.
